Certificate of Internship

To whom it may concern,

This is to certify Zhengrong Sun, from University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, started his four weeks' internship at China Galaxy Securities CO., LTD. Harbin Zhongshan Road Securities Operation Department from July 2th, 2018 to July 27th, 2018.

During the student's internship, under the guidance of our investment counselors, he got a profound understanding of our operation flow and profit source. By investigating the stock market, he was familiar with investment research reports of 5G definition, consumption and medicine blocks, including the methods of technical analysis, fundamental research, and financial analysis. Meanwhile, he participated in simulated stock trading and received satisfying earnings. During the analysis, the student attempted to find out every problem he encountered on his own initiative and never hesitated to ask senior co-workers for assistance. In addition, he independently analyzed vaccine event of Changsheng Bio-Technology Co., Ltd., and its long-term consequence on pharmaceutical blocks and medicine market, reflecting on the problem brought by lack of supervising organizations. He also analyzed industry and corresponding stocks' trend with others, proving his team spirit and strong communication skill. His diligence, attitude, and cooperation ability left all his co-workers a very great impression.
